Introduction

When I was a child, my father got sick with Cancer, and he had a hard time. And eventually, God called him, and I missed him. That was many years ago, and I wished that I could have done more for him.

I did not understand, but I wanted to, and it was impossible to know what to do to help others. I tried to comprehend but could not find answers.

The wanting to understand has influenced my life. The one thing that I remembered so firmly was the importance of kindness.

While the hospital situation back then was very complicated, He was helped tremendously by the ambulance crews' kindness that came and soothed my father as they did the tough job of making him as comfortable as possible during transit.

The ambulance organization that moved him is Burholme First Aid Corps Inc., and their motto was “Not For Self, But For Others.”

When I came back from the Air Force after serving in Vietnam, I joined the volunteer organization, and, now, fifty-plus years later, I still volunteer to help them help others.

In 2015, I wrote a book about Burholme, “Emergency Medical Kindness in the Cradle Of Liberty: Big City - Cracked Bell,” which the Pennsylvania Dept of Health and the Pennsylvania Emergency Health Services Council named The Best EMS Agency in Pennsylvania.

Dedication

I dedicate this book to cancer patients and their Healing Arts care teams, including all Credentialed Caregivers of Medicine, Psychological and Psychiatric Professionals, Faith-based counselors, and Complementary Care Providers.

Practitioners and Master-Teachers of the energy healing modalities are excellent facilitators who help balance and soothe cancer patients' emotional and mental, and spiritual crises. I have talked about the Reiki and the Integrated Energy Therapy® (IET) modalities extensively in earlier Cancer books. I want to expand here on healing possibilities with the “Pranic Healing” gifts.

Prana seems to allow more than subtle energy sharing. It appears to be an adaptive way to energetically clear, smooth, filter, reconfigure, and discharge harmful or disruptive energy and refresh healing stimulation to facilitate the optimal natural internal healing system toward homeostasis.

1 - What is Prana

Prana is the life force that flows through all human beings, and it is pivotal to healing. The Human energy inside all of us is called subtle energy. This natural energy is different from the Alternating Current and Direct Current power that we see in our houses, vehicles, and batteries.

I taught Reiki (The Usui System of Natural Healing). A delightful and effective way to demonstrate subtle energy was two people holding hands and then holding a subtle energy sensitive ball that would light up when both parties touched it and completed the circuit that had the ball light up.

I have introduced Prana in an earlier Cancer Glue Books Series and ways to nurture it.

Nurturing cancer patients' energy is of optimal importance to me as that is the single most significant deficiency that I have heard from patients – “I don't have any energy.”

Unfortunately, too many people accept that feeling, which assures a lackluster healing experience that is not helpful. Correcting that perspective is recommended.

A simple beneficial energy concept is that “Energy follows Thought.” Expecting high energy and believing it is already present sets patients up for success in their efforts to heal.

2 - Why I am Writing This Book

I have moved towards support in as many ways as I can. I write a lot about healing, and my ministry of healing messages continues to come full circle.

I received training at the Cancer Treatment Center of Philadelphia and learned more about what is possible to help those struggling with Cancer.

With this book, I would like to share with the world some things that I have discovered so they can help soothe more people and set them up for success.

One thing that I have heard most over the years is that the patients have no energy.

To me, talking about that can exacerbate the problem. I encourage better ideas that focus on finding energy through:

1. Positive Thinking
2. Meditation
3. Mindfulness
4. Sensitivity to others needs
5. Self-determination
6. Asking Doctors for Energy Advice
7. Nutritional Awareness
8. Participating within a community

3 - Disclaimer

I, the author, am not involved with clinical cancer care. Still, I have talked to many cancer patients during decades of pre-hospital ambulance care and transportation and many patients during fifteen years of pastoral care in the hospital.

I am sharing what is coming to me to spread understanding and trigger conversation that can be helpful. It may be that the discussion needs finessing, and I invite your wisdom into the mix.

My guidance has suggested that a lot can be done to soothe cancer patients and their families. I will detail my views, which are not the expert positions of a Cancer Center Clinician or technician or social worker, Medical Practitioner or Psychologist or Psychiatrist or another expert who might be helpful here.

Everything about Cancer may seem very complicated, but there are always practical and straightforward ideas that you can embrace when a person is open to seeing common sense items within their capability. Please be diligent and check with attending nurses and physicians before doing anything that might, in any way, violate care protocols. If in doubt, ask enough to know.

You may notice that I put nurses first in the asking chain of events. Nurses are pivotal decision-makers in care options as they may often be more accessible and better equipped with the details and aware of the latest orders.

You might think that Doctors' have more skill in doing a task, which is likely real, but the timing of intervention is critical in some patients' care, and nurses may have standing orders that allow them to act quickly.

The doctors have the authority to work independently, which allows for more interventions. While doctors manage patient care plans, you may notice that nurses, especially Triage Nurses, prioritize care performance. Hence, the doctors avoid the fragmentation of their focus in too many directions at once.

Nurses work as part of the health care team, and they have their critical time priorities and intervention capabilities. Team structure allows an orchestrated alignment, so the doctors and nurses operate in a healing harmonic like a symphony.

Nurses greatly enhance the effectiveness of doctors and facilitate their ability to handle more patients expediently.

Like an orchestra, the healing music needs the conductor and the full ensemble with all optimal communicating participants.

They are all balancing proficiency and speed, which is essential to doctors and nurses alike. While each group has skills that overlap, productivity and specialization allow the best results from the most adept skills of each with the least stress for all.

4 - Fear Versus The Disease

Cancer's fear is like a toxic waste as it can provide an environment that nurtures problem initiation and expansion. Fear can grab you consciously and subconsciously.

Fear and worry are pure trouble potentials. Together they make a terrible pair of pitfalls you could avoid. Consider each of them like a landmine that offer no good and could get you in more trouble.

Fear creates a kind of Mental block that can get in the way of you understanding the initiatives that you can bring into your life that align with a Healing Path.

I wrote a blogpost about breaking up mental blocks, and it may help you break yours. The post is on the website of the Awaken Center For Human Evolution. The Direct Blog page is <https://www.awakenche.org/blog/mental-energy-block-chops-6684>

Worry may precede or go along with fear. It is also something that you are best to eliminate. I wrote a book about stifling all worry.

5 - Four Areas To Consider

There are Four support areas of our lives that we can work to keep in balance. They are:

Physical Support
Emotional Support
Mental Support
Spiritual Support

Each of these areas is significant because they all interact on an ongoing basis, and if one loses lift, then the connected ones within you are tweaked, and that can be less than healthy. I will offer examples of the method below for each area that needs to be supported. Other methods can be useful, and I invite you to establish a separate effort of discovery into each spot, emphasizing those that need attention for any emotional struggle within you at a given time.

Physical Support

Your primary care and specialty care providers now need to be your high priority focus. Please be sure to listen to all they say and decide wisely.

It may be awkward, but now is a time that your Physical support choices could be irritated by reactionary emotionality. You need a great deal of support from people who you trust.

Avoiding information that is hard to hear can easily lead you to conveniently not listen to what you hear, so it is crucial to have an advocate with you during your appointments. They can note all the doctors say to remind you of essential information that you consciously or subconsciously deny hearing.

Information is a commodity that can significantly influence your ability to rearrange your life to enhance remedial tweaks.

Denying the problem's depth helps nothing, but learning the details allows an optimal management and survival plan.

Emotional Support Systems

I have written a lot about Emotional Support in Nineteen earlier Cancer books, which are also in three compendiums. All the books are in Chapter 14.

An energy modality called Integrated Energy Therapy has changed my life. It allows one to invoke Angelic energy for the release of stuffed emotions and cellular memory.

Integrated Energy Therapy can be used in person or sent at a distance to the one needing it. I use it before or after Pranic Healing and other modalities.

Mental Support System

Our minds can be our most reliable ally or our weakest link. When we allow our minds just to run, there seems to be a great group of possibilities on a scale from good to evil. When we take charge of our thoughts and direct them to a focus, we can move toward a goal. Sorting through the many questions can be daunting.

The best resource that I have found is an ancient system called Dowsing that allows me to access possibilities and objectively help myself, clients, and friends quickly find goals that resonate with a progressive path out of any state of overwhelming emotional paralysis.

Dowsing can be done in person or at a distance. There is a dowsing book of mine in the Cancer books by Mike page. I am excited to think about you using it along with or after Pranic Healing.

Powerful Quote About Intelligence

“An intelligent person is not closed-minded. He does not behave like an ostrich burying his head in the ground, trying to avoid new ideas and developments.

An intelligent person is not gullible. He does not accept ideas blindly.

He studies and digests them thoroughly, then evaluates them against his reason: he tests these new ideas and developments through experiments and his experiences.

An intelligent person studies these ideas with a clear objective mind.

Shared by Master Choa Kok Sui

Spiritual Support Systems

I have also written a lot about Spiritual Support and Emotional Support in earlier books that I compiled into Compendiums. A list of all the books is in Chapter 14.

Prayer is powerful, and its ability is increased with frequency. The person who is saying the prayer can say more of them, or the one who needs them can get the assistance of a person of prayer, a minister, a prayer circle, a prayer therapist, or an online remote healing group to add to the efforts of the primary person praying.

One resource for prayer preciseness support is the webpage www.Create-A-Prayer.com. Prayer can be practiced in person or at a distance.

6 - Your Thinking Impacts Your Energy

Personal Power Declarations impact your energy profoundly. The following declarations are from Chapter 3, 3-1, 3-2, 3-3, 3-4, and 3-5 of the book Deep Daily Declarations: Personal Peace Brings Confidence. Confidence Helps Healing.

I Can Release Negativity

Worry Is a Waste of Time! I Can Stop doing It!

Worry Doesn't Help – Prayer Still Does!

Fear Is an Invitation From the Dark Side!

I Can Stop Being Fearful!

Hate is Toxic Self-Administered Poison!
Hate For Others May Be Personal or referred!
Bad Either Way. I Can Stop doing It! I Only
Need To Fear The Loss of God – Not God!

The Path Out of Negativity
Is An Invitation like a prayer –
Lord Be With Me!

7 - Life Energy And The Breath

Living people and things depend on breathing. Without breath, life ceases.

Air is essential, as is the quality of that air. When a person is living in a contaminated environment, their life length can be short.

Every effort should be taken to have air that is as fresh and pure as possible.

Our bodies' energy and life force are continually diminishing as we do things and apply motion to our muscles. The simple act of breathing uses the breath to breathe in new vibrancy.

While breathing and the life force or Prana that it brings is very natural if not automatic during our youth, many things can happen to humans that influence our ability to breathe and create life force. Diminishing our life force can also decrease our ability to reach an optimal age.

8 - My Journey with Pranic Healing

Before experiencing Pranic Healing, I imagined it as another healing energy system like many I have learned. When I felt a little demo session during an Open House at The Awaken Center for Human Evolution (AwakenCHE.org), I was immediately impressed with the energy shift that I felt right after closing my eyes.

I scheduled a session to see if it was a one-off experience or whether there was more for me to feel. Again, I was immediately impressed and amazed.

If you ever told me that at the age of 74 that I would be racing to take new training, I would have said you were nuts. Well, Pranic Healing got my attention, and I booked the training and took it in short order.

I was impressed and amazed. I shared my impression in a book series that I was writing about Cancer. Still, because my experience at the time was limited, I recommended that readers do their investigation and evaluation.

If readers had familiarity with other energy systems, then they would have a base of comparison. If readers did not, then I would recommend and have recommended energy work as nurture.

Before Learning Pranic Healing and after serving in the Air Force, I started an ambulance company and took care of many sick people. In both the back of an ambulance and while ministering at the bedside, I have consistently heard Cancer patients and others tell me they didn't have enough energy, so I suggest that all who can learn how to improve theirs do so.

Since then, I have studied a lot more about Pranic Healing, and I participate in many healing events and conferences. One of the things that I like most about pranic healing is its focus on cleansing. Smoothing out existing energy and removing negative energies clears the way for fresh infusions of subtle energy.

Pranic Healing seems to get to the roots of issues and then nurture the situation and everyone involved.

9 - Pranic Healing Has A Special Meditation

The Meditation for Pranic Healing is called the Meditation on Twin Hearts. It's called that because it is designed to open the Heart and Crown Chakras ("Twin Hearts"), helping meditators to feel more love towards themselves, their families, and their communities.

As it does this, Meditation on Twin Hearts provides both physical and emotional benefits. It is correctly described as "... an integral part of Pranic Healing that provides the strength the body needs to fight off infections, as well as helping practitioners learn to control their emotions and feel less anger, anxiety, and irritation, reduce stress and improve concentration."

The meditation allows positive energy to flow through your body, which releases negative or unwanted energy. Scientific testing has shown people who practice this meditation are healthier and more at peace mentally compared to others."

If you find the opportunity to participate in the meditation, I encourage you to give it a go in person or online.

Meditation on Twin Hearts alone is an excellent gift to the world. It allows some people to go deep enough to trigger homeostasis, the organic internal healing system that works independently or as postop or post-treatment care by the best doctors in the world.

Citizens of the world who lack high tech modern care could do better with it than nothing. If you can attend a Meditation On Twin Hearts, You will be amazed to hear attendees share their experiences.

Many report stress reduction, releases of pain, increased flexibility, and some even spiritual experiences.

YouTube.com is an excellent no-cost venue to see if you might like the meditation. While there, you could also search Pranic Healing and learn more about it.

10 - Simplified Beginning Ideas

If you or someone you care about is in an illness crisis, resources can be sparse. While many things could offer some promise, it may be challenging to figure out the optimal ones for the needs of the person you want to help.

If you can get access to a book on Pranic Healing, you can begin to educate yourself and take one step at a time.

I particularly like the book “Miracles Through Pranic Healing.” It is on kindle for $13.99. When you start that book, even before you get to Chapter One, there are pages titled “How To Practice Simplified Pranic Healing Immediately.”

A feature of the Pranic Healing Process is precise step-by-step instructions, a recipe for a healing experience. While this Simplified Pranic Healing procedure can demonstrate effectiveness, it does not help all issues like the full system.

There are twelve steps in the procedure that are to go in sequence. Eleven of those steps are to read the specific text, and the twelfth is to do a treatment that could last 20 minutes to an hour.

The first eleven steps are described as readable within a time frame of two hours. The eleven steps are:

1. Learn about the eleven essential chakras.
2. Practice connecting the tongue to the roof of the mouth,

3. Read about the procedure process for Bioplasmic waste disposal.
4. Review General sweeping technique.
5. Review the Localized sweeping technique.
6. Learn about Diseased Energy Contamination & Handwashing Techniques.
7. Patient Receptivity assistance.
8. Energizing with Prana & Hand Chakra Technique.
9. Stabilizing the Projected Prana
10. Releasing the Projected Prana
11. Five things to avoid in Pranic Healing

The 12th step is Pranic Treatment for 20 minutes to an hour. I Recommend that you consider that and all the steps above as an investment in your wellness.

14 - COVID 19 Healing Pods

COVID-19

PROJECT HOPE FOR HEALING

COVID-19 has hit the world hard, and Pranic Healing is doing its part to offer help for those affected.

Project Hope for Healing is an ambitious project begun in early 2020 by Pranic Healers worldwide to help people recover from Covid-19. Each day, hundreds of healers work distantly on Covid-19 patients.

People with COVID-19 who need healing can fill out the intake form at <http://www.projecthopeforhealing.com/covid19>. There is no cost to the patient and no time commitment other than giving their information at the outset (name, age, city of residence, symptoms) and about 5 minutes once a week to update their healer/s on their progress.

15 - Wrap Up

I hope this book allows more people to find options for the healing they and their families need.

There are some high potentials to be had with the energy work of many modalities.

The significant factor in Pranic Healing that I like is Energy Cleansing, which is akin to smoothing out existing energy and removing some negative energy to clear the way for fresh infusions of subtle energy.

May all who read these words have their energy increase, AND SO IT IS! Amen and Amen! Pranic Healing Could Change Your Life. I hope it does.
